

Once upon a time, in a magical forest far away, there lived a sweet panda named Li. He was very curious and loved exploring the forest. One sunny day, while playing near the river, he spotted something shiny floating in the water. It was a message in a bottle!

Excitedly, Li swam over and grabbed the bottle. Inside, there was a piece of paper with a message written on it. The message read: "Help! I'm lost and need to find my way home. - Timmy, the turtle."

Li felt sad for Timmy and knew he had to help. But how? He thought and thought until he came up with a clever idea: he would ask all the animals in the forest if they had seen Timmy.

Li went from tree to tree asking the birds, but they hadn't seen Timmy. He asked the squirrels, but they hadn't seen Timmy either. Finally, he asked the wise old owl, and the owl told him that Timmy lived in a pond on the other side of the forest.

Excited, Li ran to the pond and found Timmy, all alone and scared. He helped Timmy find his way home, and they became good friends.

The moral of the story is that it is important to help others, even if they are different from us. Just like he helped Timmy, we should always give help to those in need..
